Scouts get creative for centenary

SCOUTS, cubs and beavers from across the area were at Manby Showground over the weekend for a centenary camp to celebrate 100 years of scouting.

More than 100 young people aged six to 25 were at the camp representing scouts from all over the county, including Skegness, Burgh le Marsh, Alford and Spilsby.

During the weekend, activities included abseiling, climbing and canoeing among others.
