

Top citizens are rewarded

COMMUNITY stalwarts have been rewarded for their hard work by Gainsborough Rotary Club.

And collecting the Senior Citizenship Award from president Cliff Williams at Gainsborough House last Wednesday was Mrs Mary Fish for her 27 years as a voluntary administrator.

Rotarian Neil Taylor, chairman of the vocational service committee, said: "Mrs Fish took over the administration of Gainsborough House when William McIntyre, the retired chief executive to West Lindsey District Council died in 1980.

"She recalled the many changes and improvements that have occurred since that time.

"She was also full of praise for all the voluntary help afforded her by the many organisations which continue to use the facilities at Gainsborough House."

Rotarians also recently handed out Citizenship Certificates and book tokens to four Gainsborough secondary pupils.

Castel Hills student Nikita Conway (16) was recognised for her community work in promoting dance in her own school and among primary pupils.

Christina Jubbs (15) from Middlefield School of Technology was awarded for her community work for St John Ambulance.

She is currently a corporal in the cadets and qualifying for a Grand Prior's award.

Fellow Middlefield pupil William Baldock (15) was chosen for work in the 14th Gainsborough Scouts, where he is now an Explorer Scout and in assisting with the Morton Beaver Group. He is also involved with safety work at Girton Sailing Club.

Lloyd Curtis (17) from Queen Elizabeth High School was chosen for his community work with the Gainsborough Youth Council and the West Lincolnshire Youth Service.

While in school he is heavily involved in all forms of extra curricular and supervisory work, being a school mentor and prefect.

Youngsters who have carried out work for the benefit of the community were presented with citizenship awards by Gainsborough Rotary Club. Pictured are (from left) Nikita Conway (16) from Castle Hills, Lloyd Curtis (17) from QEHS, Rotary president Cliff Williams and Middlefield pupils William Baldock (15) and Christina Jubbs (15).