Pub staff get on their bikes to raise cash for cub camp

STAFF at a Gedney Dyke pub raised £700 for cubs with a bike ride around Rutland Water.

Cyclists from The Chequers rode the 26 miles to raise money for 1st Gedney Cubs, allowing them to go on a camp at Surfleet Park as part of celebrations of 100 years of scouting.

Cub scout leader Sam Raines, who also works at The Chequers, said: "All the staff at the pub managed it, although some were sore at the end."
