

Centenary marked

ASSAULT courses and kick-boxing displays will take place at Lincoln Castle to celebrate the centenary of scouting.

Scouts from Lincoln will be taking over the city's castle at the weekend.

Activities include a climbing tower, trips into the dungeon and crafts.

There will also be displays of a wide variety of skills, including wood-working and gymnastics.

There will also be a flypast from the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight.

Event spokesman Sandra Donnor said: "It is a chance for people to come and celebrate with us."

It takes place from 9.30am to 5.30pm on Saturday and from 11am to 5.30pm on Sunday.
